RE: Deadlines and procedures affected due to the February 2021 extreme weather in Texas

Dear Counsel and Litigants:

In addition to the COVID-19 pandemic, we now face issues caused by power outages, lack of water, icy roads, and the inability of many to travel those roads to tend to their basic needs. While this Court believed the Thirty-Third Emergency Order Regarding The COVID-19 State of Disaster only applied to COVID-19, the Texas Supreme Court has issued this following statement on its website:

“The Court recognizes that many across Texas are facing weather-related outages. The Court’s current 33rd emergency order is broad and allows all courts to modify or suspend any and all deadlines and procedures to accommodate those affected.”

In closing, the Court hopes that you, your family, and friends are safe and as warm as possible. All the best during these difficult times.

Respectfully,
